

NON-FICTION NEW RELEASES + FORTHCOMING

TEN ROGUES
by PETER GROSE
PB $29.99

A wickedly entertaining story from colonial Australia. Includes pirates, escapees, and a touch of romance. You can join Peter in conversation with Hamish Maxwell-Stewart (UTAS) at Fullers on 11 February.

A VERY STABLE GENIUS
by PHILIP RUCKER & CAROL LEONNIG
PB $29.99

Pulitzer Prize winners, Rucker and Leonnig, closely observe Trump's tenure in the White House, with unparalleled access to those around the President. There's been no shortage of books concerning Trump these past few years, but this one stands out.

FIRE COUNTRY
by VICTOR STEFFENSEN
PB $29.99

Steffensen's Fire Country is a plea to revive Indigenous fire practices, taught to him by Indigenous elders, that promote land care and healing. Written to reflect current climate conditions, and identify how 'cool burns' can restore our nation.

DEAR PARENTS
by GABBIE STROUD
PB $32.99

From the author of Teacher comes a call-to-arms for parents to recognise their own role as teacher in their child's life. Strand takes aim at standardised testing, and urges us instead to return to crucial life skills as the goal of teaching.

UNFREE SPEECH
by JOSHUA WONG
PB $19.99

At 23, Joshua Wong has already spent a year in detention as a political prisoner. In Unfree Speech, he calls for global democratisation.

WE SWIM TO THE SHARK
by GEORGIE CODD
PB $32.99

Part travel memoir, part exploration of fear. Georgie's journey to Thailand lands her face to face with her greatest fear, and asks her to overcome it. For fans of The Salt Path and The Outrun.

THE LOST PIANOS OF SIBERIA
by SOPHY ROBERTS
PB $32.99

Pianos have been an integral part of Russia since Catherine the Great. Sophy Roberts traces the significance of these upright instruments in Russian lore, and follows their stories deep into Siberia's exile past.

DEAR FRIEND, YOU MUST CHANGE YOUR LIFE
by ADA BRONOWSKI (ed.)
PB $39.99

From Aurelius to Wilde, this collection of letters by famous thinkers seeks to emphasise the importance of the epistolary friendship — soundboarding ideas in a voice that never makes it through to publication.

FICTION NEW RELEASES + FORTHCOMING

APEIROGON
by COLUM MCCANN
PB $29.99

Taking its name from the polygon with a countably infinite number of sides, and telling the story of a friendship between two men: one Israeli, the other Palestinian. United by grief, Apeirogon is McCann's most ambitious, profound work to date.

HOUSE OF TRELAWNEY
by HANNAH ROTHSCHILD
PB $29.99

Hannah Rothschild is a bit of a Fullers favourite. Her debut novel, The Impossibility of Love, was much-adored upon its arrival. And we're certain House of Trelawney will follow suit — as we follow the story of a highly dysfunctional aristocratic British family.

ACTRESS
by ANNE ENRIGHT
PB $29.99

A story of a mother and her daughter: their relationship, the men in their lives, and the parallel worlds in which they have lived.

GROWN UPS
by MARIAN KEYES
PB $32.99

When Cara gets a concussion at a family gathering, she can't keep her thoughts to herself. Secrets start to pour out — with the whole family present to witness.

THE BASS ROCK
by EVIE WYLD
PB $32.99

Winner of the Miles Franklin Prize for her 2013 novel, All the Birds, Singing.

A gothic delight that follows the lives of three women across four centuries. From witch trials to widowhood, The Bass Rock is biting angry, and undeniably beautiful.

WHEN WE WERE VIKINGS
by ANDREW DAVID MACDONALD
PB $29.99

This decade's Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time. Viking enthusiast, Zelda, sets out to uncover the shady methods her brother has resorted to in order to make money. Off-kilter, funny, and heart-warming.
