CELEBRATING OVER 100 YEARS OF BOOKSELLING

FICTION

TASMANIAN AUTHOR | DUE LATE JULY

THE DEEP

by KYLE PERRY

PB $32.99

SPECIAL PRICE $29.99

A new novel from Kyle Perry, author of The Bluffs. It's a modern tale of pirates, and the deep, dark depths of the ocean. If you thought his first novel was ominous, just wait!

TASMANIAN AUTHOR

THE COOKBOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

by FRANCESCA HAIG

PB $27.99

Francesca's foray into adult fiction, The Cookbook of Common Prayer, tells a story of deception in the name of protecting a child. Set between London and Tasmania, this novel is gut-wrenching and redemptive.

SHOULD WE STAY OR SHOULD WE GO

by LIONEL SHRIVER

PB $29.99

A desire to die with dignity forces the hand of a married couple who decide to help each other die when they reach eighty. But eighty is upon them, and they're not quite ready to go...

TASMANIAN AUTHOR | DANNY RECOMMENDS

BORN INTO THIS

by ADAM THOMPSON

PB $29.99

Adam Thompson has delivered a truly diverse collection of stories, working to expand our understanding of Aboriginal life through his anger, humour, and profound connection to place and people.

We suspect Born into This is going to become a staple piece of Tasmanian fiction.

ANNE RECOMMENDS

TEMPORARY

by HILARY LEICHTER

PB $27.99

A timely novel that encapsulates the banality of menial labour, the instability of the increasingly casual gig economy, and the shifting identity "performances" as you drift through various workplaces.

The ensuing drudgery and alienation is made magical and hilarious by Leichter, with every page filled with delicious word-play and business buzzword absurdities. - Anne

CLIVE RECOMMENDS

KLARA AND THE SUN

by KAZUO ISHIGURO

PB $32.99

This is Ishiguro's first novel since winning the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2017. Klara and the Sun is the bizarre, touching tale of artificial life, and the false promises of humanity.

PRIZE WINNERS

THE MILES FRANKLIN LITERARY AWARD WINNER 2021

TASMANIAN AUTHOR

THE LABYRINTH

by AMANDA LOHREY

PB $29.99

Amanda Lohrey has written a razor-sharp tale about guilt, grief, and building a labyrinth by the ocean.

THE AUSTRALIAN/VOGEL'S LITERARY AWARD WINNER 2021

NOW THAT I SEE YOU

by EMMA BATCHELOR

PB $29.99

Emma Batchelor's debut novel follows the breakdown of a relationship after one party reveals their true, unexpected identity. Now I See You is an epistolary novel of our times, our troubles, and our newfound understanding of what it means to be a person.

VICTORIAN PREMIER'S LITERARY AWARD WINNER 2021

THE ANIMALS IN THAT COUNTRY

by LAURA JEAN MCKAY

PB $29.99

A plague spreads across the nation, leaving those affected by the virus with the ability to understand animal communication. A feat of speculative literary fiction.

STELLA PRIZE WINNER 2021

THE BASS ROCK

by EVIE WYLD

PB $22.99

A gothic tale of three women's lives across four centuries. 2021's Stella Prize Winner is a powerful feminist text about the influence of men over women throughout history.

FICTION

WELCOME TO NOWHERE RIVER
by MEG BIGNELL
PB $32.99

A delightful, heartfelt and humorous story celebrating life in a small country town, where everybody knows everything, but no one really knows anyone at all.

DUE LATE JULY

MEDUSA'S ANKLES
by A S BYATT
HC $42.99

With an introduction by David Mitchell, this selection of A S Byatt's stories is the product of a diverse creative life that pulls from mythology, fairytales and life in the 20th century.

TASMANIAN AUTHOR | ADELLE RECOMMENDS

THE MISTAKE
by KATIE MCMAHON
PB $29.99

The debut novel from local author, Katie McMahon, that asks: what happens when one decision changes everything? And is it possible to turn a mistake around?

TASMANIAN AUTHOR

THE GOOD WIFE OF BATH
by KAREN BROOKS
PB $32.99

In her finest work yet, local author Karen Brooks has cheekily retold Chaucer's The Wife of Bath, exploring what happens when the power of men is left unchecked. Clever, wickedly funny historical fiction.

BEN RECOMMENDS

LOVE OBJECTS
by EMILY MAGUIRE
PB $32.99

In Love Objects, the Stella-shortlisted author returns with a deeply moving story about familial love, hoarding, and harboured hurt.

GRIMMISH
by MICHAEL WINKLER
PB $30.99

Winkler takes the true story of boxer Joe Grim's tour to Australia and intersperses it with meditations on pain, novelistic interludes and authorial interjections. Grim was conspicuous for being fairly incompetent with the gloves, but remarkable for his ability to take whatever punishment his opponent could mete out. This is spectacularly smart but also tremendously good fun. - Ben

MARK RECOMMENDS

CIVILISATIONS
by LAURENT BINET
PB $32.99

From the author of HHhH comes a counter-history of the modern world, exploring the eternal human quest for domination. Civilisations is a bit wacky, and entirely brilliant.

NO ONE IS TALKING ABOUT THIS
by PATRICIA LOCKWOOD
PB $29.99

The debut novel from the author of Priestdaddy, about the internet and our relationship to the beast. Lockwood's cutting, poetic prose delivers a gut punch of a turn as our protagonist is drawn away from the portal, back into the arms of life and its frailties.

ADELLE RECOMMENDS

ARIADNE
by JENNIFER SAINT
PB $32.99

For fans of Pat Barker's The Silence of the Girls and Madeline Miller's Circe. Ariadne is a fiery novel about the Princess of Crete.

EMMY RECOMMENDS

TALK TO ME
by T C BOYLE
PB $29.99

Talk to Me asks what it means to truly understand another being—human or otherwise. In a similar vein to The Inner Circle and Outside Looking In, Boyle does what he does best: tricks us into learning about recent scientific history.

NON-FICTION

TASMANIAN EDITOR | TIM RECOMMENDS

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE ULURU STATEMENT FROM THE HEART
by MEGAN DAVIS + GEORGE WILLIAMS
PB $27.99

Constitutional experts, Davis and Williams, explain what the Uluru Statement from the Heart means for Australia, how it came into being, and what it means for our future.

INGA CLENDINNEN: SELECTED WRITINGS
edited by JAMES BOYCE
PB $34.99

An excellent selection of writings from the woman who was one of Australia's leading intellectual lights. James Boyce presents the many facets of her remarkable body of work. Animating these pieces is her incredible moral intelligence: above all else, Clendinnen wanted to understand what the world was like for other people. - Tim

HENRY REYNOLDS, HISTORIAN

TASMANIAN AUTHOR

TRUTH-TELLING
by HENRY REYNOLDS
PB $34.99

Henry's latest effort presents a prescient examination of the Uluru Statement from the Heart, which works to dismantle colonial lies. Truth-Telling argues that the Uluru Statement is as much about looking to the past as it is about paving a way forward.

TASMANIAN AUTHORS | DUE AUGUST

TONGERLONGETER
by HENRY REYNOLDS + NICHOLAS CLEMENTS
PB $34.99

Reynolds and Clements seek to redeem the efforts of a Tasmanian War Hero from historical obscurity, and reinstate Tongerlongeter into the narrative he himself shaped. A vital biography of a long-forgotten First Nations Leader.

FLASH JIM
by KEL RICHARDS
PB $32.99

You may remember James Hardy Vaux's Dictionary of Criminal Slang from a few years ago. Flash Jim is the story of the man himself, and what a story! Spotting an opportunity to get in with authorities, JHV set about writing Australia's first dictionary.

MODERN THOUGHT

TOXIC
by RICHARD FLANAGAN
PB $24.99

Richard Flanagan takes on the highly secretive salmon industry in a chilling exposé – an absolute must-read for Tasmanians. Phenomenal, important work from one of the most powerful voices in Australia.

THE LAST CORRESPONDENT
by MICHAEL SMITH
PB $34.99

What does China's recent rise to superpower mean for Australia, and the rest of the world? Former China Correspondent for the Australian Financial Times gives a first-hand account on the state of a highly secretive nation.

TASMANIAN EDITOR

LOVE, PASSION AND CRUELTY edited by MALCOLM WARD
PB $50

Malcolm Ward has collected George Meredith's scandalous love letters to his wife, written between 1823 and 1836. You'll never look at gardens in the same light... Best described as salacious history.

CONVICT-ERA PORT ARTHUR
by DAVID W CAMERON
PB $34.99

How many lashes were dispensed in a single year at Port Arthur? David Cameron delivers a compelling history of the penal colony, and the individuals who lived and died there.

WITH THE FALLING OF THE DUSK
by STAN GRANT
PB $34.99

A book of remarkable scope – In With the Falling of the Dusk, Grant looks at the current state of the world, and offers ways forward in seemingly hopeless situations.

PARENTAL AS ANYTHING

by MAGGIE DENT

PB $34.99

Maggie's latest parenting book, based on her popular podcast of the same name, is all about common-sense parenting. Dent delivers the perfect combination of professional advice and examples of real-life parenting so you can raise a well-adjusted child.

THE THREE BURIALS OF LOTTY KNEEN

by KRISSY KNEEN

PB $34.99

In this dreamy fairytale of a memoir, Krissy seeks to reconcile her understanding of her grandmother's life with some semblance of truth – re-tracing Lotty's footsteps in search of something tangible.

LET ME TELL YOU WHAT I MEAN

by JOAN DIDION

HC $27.99

No matter the topic, Joan Didion cuts through with her singular voice to shape perceptions. Her essays are treasure, pillaged from the 20th century, informing how we look at the future.

DUE AUGUST

12 BYTES

by JEANETTE WINTERSON

PB $32.99

Winterson takes on twelve of the best talking points in artificial intelligence, articulating how it affects our lives, and how it might affect our futures. All delivered with the wit and candour we've come to expect from the author of Oranges are Not the Only Fruit.

A SWIM IN A POND IN THE RAIN

by GEORGE SAUNDERS

HC $34.99

What makes great writing great? And what are our brains doing when we read great literature? George Saunders shows us across seven essays about seven great Russian short stories.
